BREAKOUT 1

MONDAY, 1:00 PM

UNDERSTANDING ADOLESCENTS: THE BACK DOOR TO YOUR TEEN'S HEART

Sissy Goff

How was your day? Fine. What'd you do in school today? Nothing. Countless parents of teenagers tell us it feels as if someone took their child, in the middle of the night, and replaced them with an alien who looks identical. So how do you get past it? How do you help them navigate the teenage years when they keep shutting the door as soon as you walk upstairs? How do you connect with them in a way that enables you to really connect with them? This session will equip you with ways to get past the one word answers; ideas of how to connect, even when they seem disinterested; discipline and responsibility strategies that mature as your child does. "The Back Door to Your Teen's Heart" is a disarming approach to find your way back to the child you used to know, and draw out and even enjoy who they are becoming. Join us for this time to talk, laugh and encourage each other on this tumultuous journey of raising teens.

SISSY GOFF, M.Ed, LPC-MHSP spends most of her days talking with girls and their families, with the help of her counseling assistant/pet therapist, Lucy the Havanese. She has worked as the Director of Child and Adolescent Counseling at Daystar Counseling Ministries in Nashville, TN since 1993, with a Master's degree from Vanderbilt University. Sissy speaks to parents across the country and is the author of eleven books including Raising Girls, Raising Worry-Free Girls and Braver, and Stronger Smarter. Sissy is a regular contributor to various podcasts and publications, including a podcast called "Raising Boys and Girls." You can find more information and resources at www.raisingboysandgirls.com.

BREAKOUT 2

NURTURING RESILIENCE IN KIDS David Thomas

We all want to raise resilient kids, but how do we actually do that? Join David for this important conversation to define resilience, take a look at the biggest barriers to building it, and more importantly, the intentional practices to help kids develop it.

DAVID THOMAS, L.M.S.W., is the Director of Family Counseling at Daystar Counseling in Nashville, TN, the co-author of eight books, including the best-selling Wild Things: The Art of Nurturing Boys. He is a frequent guest on national television and podcasts, including his own podcast called Raising Boys and Girls, has been featured in publications like USA Today, and speaks across the country. He recently completed Are My Kids on Track? The 12 Emotional, Social & Spiritual Milestones Your Child Needs to Reach. He and his wife, Connie, have a daughter, twin sons, and a feisty yellow lab named Owen. You can follow him on social media @raisingboysandgirls and find the latest parenting resources at www.raisingboysandgirls.com.

MAIN SESSION 2

KANDI GALLATY

Kandi Gallaty is a pastor's wife, a mother of two precious boys (Rig and Ryder), a speaker, and a writer who is devoted to making disciples by cultivating a passion in women and girls for God's Word. She and her husband, Robby, coauthored Foundations, and together they lead Replicate Ministries, a ministry that educates, equips, and empowers believers to make disciples who make disciples. Kandi and her family live outside of Nashville, Tennessee and serve at their church, Long Hollow Baptist Church.

JONATHAN EVANS

Jonathan Evans, a mentor, author, speaker and former NFL fullback treasures his relationship with Christ along with the opportunity to use his life to glorify God. Jonathan serves with his pastor, friend and father, Dr. Tony Evans, both in the local church and the national ministry. They also teamed up together to write Get in the Game, a practical guidebook filled with sports analogies and spiritual truths aimed at strengthening readers with the skills they need for living victoriously.

Jonathan is a graduate of Dallas Theological Seminary with a masters degree in Christian Leadership. He also serves as the chaplain of the Dallas Cowboys and co-chaplain of the Dallas Mavericks. Jonathan is a dynamic speaker at churches, conferences, men's events, banquets, youth, and FCA events. He is committed to developing the next generation of devoted Christian leaders.

Jonathan and his wife Kanika are the proud parents of Kelsey, Jonathan II, Kamden, Kylar, and Jade Wynter. They reside in Dallas, Texas.

BREAKOUT 3

TUESDAY, 9:00 AM

5 RELATIONSHIPS YOU NEED TO WIN IN MINISTRY Ben Trueblood

You've heard it said that ministry is all about relationships, but it is often the case that ministry leaders have many surface level relationships and few deep ones. In this breakout we will explore the five relationships that you need to prioritize in order to win in ministry.

BEN TRUEBLOOD serves as the Director of Student Ministry for Lifeway Christian Resources and has served in student ministry for more than twenty years. In addition to his role at Lifeway, Ben is involved in training, consulting, and speaking to student ministries throughout the U.S. He is driven by a desire for student ministries to expand God's Kingdom, to see the lives of students transformed by the gospel, and to produce students who shape the culture in which they live. Ben and his wife, Kristen, have four children. In his free time, Ben enjoys family, hunting, Crossfit, and the St. Louis Cardinals. You can follow Ben on Instagram and Twitter at: @benttrueblood.

BREAKOUT 4

TUESDAY, 10:15 AM

EVERY AGE, EVERY STAGE: TEACHING GOD'S TRUTH AT HOME AND CHURCH

Ken Hindman

Think about the parents in your ministry. What is their plan for teaching their children about God, Jesus, the Bible, their community and world, and salvation? As a church leader, do you have a plan to teach these and other key concepts to preschoolers, elementary children, preteens and teenagers? Let's talk about what a plan looks like for the home and the church.

KEN HINDMAN serves as the Children's Pastor at Bellevue Baptist Church in Cordova, Tennessee. He has served in preschool and children's ministry for twenty-six years. He is a graduate of The University of Alabama with a BS degree in Childhood Education. Ken and his wife, Kristina, live in Arlington, Tennessee with their two sons, Mack (20) and David (18). He was named Staff Member of the Year in 2003 by the Tennessee Baptist Convention. Ken is the creator of Marketplace, a hands-on biblical learning experience for kids. Ken has designed a variety of programs for preschoolers, children, and families such as Resurrection Journey, Kid$ense, Creation Station, TeamKID Camp, Fall Fun Fest, and Journey to Bethlehem. Ken enjoys vegetable gardening, Alabama football, collecting nativities and spending time with his family.

MAIN SESSION 3

TUESDAY, 11:30 AM

KEITH & KRISTYN GETTY

Keith and Kristyn Getty are passionate about hymns. Their hymns, including “In Christ Alone” and “Christ Our Hope in Life and Death,” are sung by more than 100 million people annually throughout the world. The couple also love sharing hymns in diverse settings, from sing-alongs in their home and at local churches to annual events at Carnegie Hall, the Kennedy Center, and the Grand Ole Opry House. They have also featured in television specials on PBS, CBS, TBN, BBC, and have sung for presidents, prime ministers, and the UK National Prayer Breakfast at Houses of Parliament.

Keith and Kristyn are award-winning recording artists as well as advocates for the fun and joy of singing in the family. Their recently released “Hymns from Home” album (drawing from their daughters’ favorite songs during the season of lockdown) is the latest installment in their popular Getty Kids Hymnal series.

Keith and Kristyn serve as founding leaders of the Getty Music organization, which will release the Sing Hymnal in 2024. They recently established the Getty Music Foundation, an initiative that seeks to foster Christ-centered singing in under-resourced parts of the world.

Keith was recently awarded Officer of the Order of the British Empire by Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II—the first contemporary Christian musician to receive this honor. Together with their four daughters, Keith and Kristyn live between Northern Ireland and Nashville.
